

Forum on

Arbitrating Sustainability in Southeast Asia

Held in conjunction with the Kuala Lumpur ADR Week 2025

2 July 2025 (Wednesday)
2:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Asian International Arbitration Centre (TBC)

SAVE
THE DATE

Register online here

Join leading arbitration and sustainability practitioners from across Southeast Asia for a timely forum on how arbitration can advance sustainable development and responsible business in the region.

Featuring speakers from across the region — including Indonesia, Philippines, Singapore, and Thailand — the forum will explore how arbitration can respond to emerging sustainability challenges, such as disputes arising from climate-related obligations, green finance, land use, and ESG commitments.